Formal Application 2004
Alliances de recherche universités-communautés
Demande détaillée 2004*

Applicant - Director/ Candidat(e) – Directeur / Directrice:	J. David Hulchanski
Lead organization/ Organisme directeur:	University of Toronto
Title/Titre:	Community gentrification and building inclusive communities from within: a case study of Toronto's West-Central neighbourhoods

Committee comments/Commentaires du comité:

As in the LOI stage of the competition, the committee found the research topic important and recognized its potential contribution. It considered that the research team is excellent given their reputation in the field and judged that they were capable of leading the project to a successful completion. It recognized the strength of the partnership and its governance structure. The committee judged that the methodology and research approach were well-suited for the project. Finally, it noted the appropriateness of the students support and the quality of the evaluation framework and process. The proposal was ranked first in the competition.

Recommendation/Recommandation:

The committee found the program to be meritorious and worthy of funding. It recommended a five-year grant as requested.

Out of 40 proposals reviewed by the committee, SSHRC awarded 15 grants.
40 demandes ont été évaluées par le comité de sélection et le CRSH a attribué 15 subventions.
